Assessment - Land Revenue - Bellary Taluk - 16 villages - Further concession - proposals.

I enclose a statement showing the average outturn for this fasli and the land revenue suspensions granted in previous years in 16 more villages of Bellary Taluk with my recommendations that further concessions granted in G.O. No.653 Press dated 19-3-32 be extended to these villages also. I recommend that the remaining half the assessment be postponed to the next fasli in six villages and quarter assessment in 10 villages as noted below.

2. Postponement of half the assessment - 6 villages One quarter of this assessment has already been postponed by Government in Eregingaligi. The Tahsildar reports that, as the people have left the village, he cannot collect the remaining quarter assessment. Kudatini and Yemmiganur are the biggest villages in Bellary taluk and had practically no crop. I think the Taluk out-turn statement was exaggerated Siddammanahalli and Kolagal which adjoin Kudathini and Hadanahatti have been allowed 8 annas suspension. The ryots of Kudatini recently wired to the Board and petitioned to Government to grant them the same concession and so also the ryots of Chinnapuram and Yelubenchi. These two villages adjoin Kudatini and Siddammanahalli. 8 annas postponement may be granted in all the six villages. I can certify from personal inspection that there was no crop to speak of in the whole of this tract.

3. Quarter postponement - 10 villages.- Malakundi, Hincheri and Sanjevarayanakota are in Bellary Firka where most of the villages have been allowed 4 annas suspension. The Tahsildar reports that these village had no better crop than the others. Vaddihatti, Kolur, Chanahal and Handihal belong to the newly formed Kolur firka. Vadihatti adjoins Hireyingaligi. The ryots of Kolur wired to the Board for full postponement and have presented me a mahazar. Chanahal and Handihal are group villages which had a very poor outturn. Guttiganur, Orvoi and Halludi are in Kurugodu firka which is the worst affected of the firkas. Guttiganur and Patnasugur are group villages and the latter only has been given this concession. Orvoyi is close to the Guttiganur, Halludi is almost a deserted village.. All these 10 villages may be given quarter postponement.

4. The Tahsildar Bellary reports that half the assessment in Rakkabevinahalli,.for which 4 annas postponement has been granted, by Government, had already been collected when the orders of Government were received. The concession granted to this village may be cancelled.

5. I request that the Government may be moved to pass early orders and communicate them to me by wire.
